

Nomen _____
Hodie _____

Latin 121, Fall 2015
Challenge XIIa

A. Responsa Brevia [5 points]

Please answer the following questions as accurately and fully as possible.

1. 3rd declension adjectives share almost all endings with 3rd declension _____-stem nouns:

2. The irregular verb _____ means "to bear" or "to carry."

3. Latin often uses the _____ construction instead of 'habet' or 'habent.'

4. In the fourth declension, the vowel _____ is found in almost every combination of g/#/c.

5. What is the ablative singular ending for all genders of 3rd declension adjectives?

B. Scribe! [3 points]

Put the following English sentences into Latin using good word order and vocabulary. (Hint: if you're feeling daunted by this, come back after you translate the passage.)

1. A brave soldier does not fear the enemy.

2. Marcus says that Aemilia's brother is a Roman knight.

3. The general (leader) commands the army; the army obeys its own general.

C. Translatio et Grammatica. [15 points]

Please translate the following passage and answer the questions related to the underlined items.

117-129

qui ...
metu
circum
ab hostibus
fortes

*Please include a word's part of speech when asked to parse!*

i. What type of clause? _____

ii. Please parse. _____

iii. Which type of phrase? _____

iv. What type of ablative construction? _____

v. Please parse. _____

