

Your responses to the questions below are most appreciated. These evaluations seek to gather information helpful to the instructor; they remain anonymous and have no bearing on your grade or standing in the course.

1. On average, how much time did you allocate to Latin each week? Include time spent on your tasks, studying, and any other out-of-class work.

---

2. On average, what percentage of class time did you spend

a. working on Latin? _____

b. working on another class? _____

on something other than schoolwork? _____

4. Did you attend the mandatory midterm meeting with the instructor? _____

a. If not, why not? _____

b. If so, what feedback did you receive? _____

---

c. How did this feedback affect your study habits, plan, or attitude toward the course?

---

---

5. You spent the first day of class reviewing the course structure and policies. You also signed a document acknowledging that you read and understood the policies. Were the course structure and policies unclear at any point? If so, please state when and what was unclear.

---

6. What, if anything, motivates you generally as a student?

---

7. What, if anything, motivates you to succeed in this course?

---

8. The instructor recently sent you a progress report noting the days on which you were prepared to workshop and the days on which you took challenges. Did this report help you notice or understand anything about your work habits, motivation in the course, or something else?

---

---

9. The course goals are listed below. Please mark the [y] or [n] to indicate whether you think that you achieved this objective (this includes work performed in class, in your various tasks, on challenges, or through the composition project).

- master course content [y] [n]
- engage with Roman culture [y] [n]
- read and write in Latin [y] [n]
- refine critical & analytical thinking [y] [n]
- improve their English grammar [y] [n]
- expand their vocabulary [y] [n]
- develop transferable skills [y] [n]

10. If you completed all fifteen chapters on or before the last day of classes:

a. To what do you attribute your success in completing the course?

---

b. Is there something that would've helped you to complete the course sooner?

---

c. What advice would you give to a student beginning this course?

---

11. If you did not complete all fifteen chapters by the last day of classes:

a. To what do you attribute the fact that you have yet to complete the course?

---

b. Is there something that would've helped you to complete the course on time?

---

c. What advice would you give to a student beginning this course?

---