

List of Visits from Field Experts

- Visit to Spencer Art Museum on campus for presentation by museum docent on “What makes art?”
- Presentation by poster design instructor on “How to design an effective poster.”
- Visit with clients on programming of site.
- Visit by practicing planner to answer questions on “How to do a site analysis from a planner’s perspective.”
- Visit by practicing civil engineer to answer questions on “How to do a site analysis from an engineer’s perspective.”
- Training on how to use ArcGIS software to map sites.
- Visit by architecture professor to answer questions on “How to do a site analysis from an architect’s perspective.”
- Visit by biologist to answer question on “How to do an ecological site analysis.”
- Visit by practicing landscape architect on how to do a site analysis.
- Training on how to use Photoshop software to alter photos to illustrate their concepts.
- Training on how to use InDesign software to make posters.
- Check-in on poster design by design instructor to help students improve their posters.
- Visit by practicing landscape architect illustrating how to create a conceptual site plan.
- Check-in on poster design by design instructor to help students one last time before final products were due.