

Service Learning Project Evaluation

Student Name _____ Anne Barker _____

Service organization/Project name ___ Pinckney Elementary _____

Service evaluation: (worth 10 pts) 9

Journal entries

Complete and very reflective. Your descriptions of the sessions with Shante and the other students reveals that you learned lots about children this age and about the construction of gender, race, and class.

Supervisor eval.

You were on-time and reliable. The supervisor appreciated your work with Shante. Good job!

Project design and execution

You chose a good topic for your project (stereotypes), but I wonder how well a writing assignment really went over with the kids. It was a good idea to have them pair up with another kid they did not know well. It would have been nice to present some of their writings, too, so I (and the class) could see what sorts of stereotypes they were dealing with.

Presentation:(worth 10 pts) 8

Description of project

Good. It would have been nice to have a description of the pictures and stereotypes that the children assigned and why you said that they were not true.

Connections with course material

You draw connections with Bartky on the harms of stereotyping and Frye on the role that oppression plays in stereotyping. It would have been good to also draw a connection with the article I wrote on the psychological mechanisms involved in stereotype formation.

Class discussion

The discussion in class was great.
