

CLASSICS 148: RUBRIC FOR FINAL PAPER

Full Credit	Partial Credit	No Credit
Argument (50%): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *The paper begins with a clear and decisive thesis statement; *The paper comprehensively answers the question from the original prompt; *The paper builds a coherent argument based closely on textual evidence; Evidence (20%): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *The paper contains two to four pieces of relevant textual evidence which complement or contrast with each other; *The paper properly cites the text; Style (30%): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *The paper is 3-3.5 pages in length and follows the formatting guidelines provided; *The paper adequately addresses the instructor's previous comments; *The paper is coherently organized according to its argument (thesis, introduction, evidence and argument, conclusion); *The paper is adequately proofread for spelling and grammar. 	Argument: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *The paper does not make its thesis statement clear; *The paper partially answers the original question, or provides an incomplete discussion of the evidence; Evidence: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *The paper contains partial or irrelevant textual evidence; *The paper improperly cites the text; Style: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *The paper is 2-2.5 pages in length or does not follow the formatting guidelines provided; *The paper only partially addresses the instructor's previous comments; *The paper contains significant errors in spelling and grammar. 	Argument: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *The paper does not contain a thesis statement; *The paper does not answer the original question; *The paper makes broad generalizations which are not based on textual evidence; Evidence: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *The paper contains no textual evidence, or does not cite the text if evidence is provided; *The paper contains an overwhelming amount of plot summary (i.e. the paper reads like a book report); Style: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *The paper is less than 2 pages; *The paper does not address the instructor's previous comments, and the student has made no attempt at improvement; *The paper lacks organization entirely; *The paper is unreadable due to errors in spelling and grammar.